LAFAYETTE'S TOMB RECEIVES HONOR

PARIS, July 4.—America's tribute to LaFayette was paid today on the Fourth of July by Hugh (Wallace, American ambassador to France, who laid a wreath on the tomb of the French hero. Wallace said:

"I stand here today where so many Americans have stood before me and in reverence and devotion place a wreath upon the grave of ImFayette. The actitiself is simple but I could do nothing more perfectly representative of American sentiments. It is as if my country stretched ber hand across the soa and set a loving tribute nefore the shrine of our best friends.

"It is most fitting that we should come to France and seek out the reading place of LaFayette. Of all great Frenchmen he is best known to usbetter known in America, indeed, than he is in France. He is but one of your heroes. To us he is the knight in shining armor who came in the hour of

ACCUSED OF SMUGGLING LIQUOR INTO GEORGIA

NEW YORK, July 4.—Charged with conspiracy, which, it is alleged, resulted in thousands of dollars worth of liquor being smuggled into the dry state of Georgia during the last few months. Louis Einsidier, a Brooklyn wholesale liquor dealer and Jacob H. Middleman, a Brooklyn leather dealer were to-day held in $3.000 ball each by United States Commissioner McGoldrick to await extradiction proceedings by the governor of Georgia. Government agents say porters and trainmen were involved in the conspiracy and that other arrests are expected.

On May 1, it is charged, 30 suit cases filled with liquor were put on a train for Savannah and thrown off at the little town of Ludowici. From Ludowici the liquor is said to have been taken to Savannah and other towns in automobiles. Several arrests have been made in connection with the case in Georgia.

BOSTON JOURNALISTS VOTE TO START STRIKE

BOSTON, July 4.—The Newspaper Writers' union of this city voted unanimously Thursday to go on strike unless the demands for wage increases and recognition of the union are granted. A committee which has conferred with publishers was authorized to set the date for the strike. The publishers will be notified of the strike vote Saturday.

The demands are for a minimum wage of 338 a week for reporters and $45 a week for copy readers. The union claims that the demand for recognition of the union has been refused. The union is a subsidiary of the international Typographical union which has granted it strike sanction. It claims a membership from seven newspapers of 110 men and women out of a total of 210 in the city.

WEEVILS IN ARKANSAS.

CONWAY, Ark., July 4. (Spl.)—Boil weevils are appearing on farme along the Arkansas river in considerable numbers, according to C. W. Wilson, who is on the big J. E. Little plantation. Weevil have been found in large numbers. Several squares of punctured cotton have been reported in the section. The appearance of the pest this year is unusually early, and adds to the worry farmers are having in regard to the outcome of the crop year.

Notice of Importance

Fully confident that the merchandising of automobiles is, and should be, conducted on the same high plane as other substantial businesses and should have an equal consideration for the welfare of its employees, we desire to announce that we have decided to close our Service, Sales and Parts Departments at noon Saturdays during July and

We are confident that this step forward will have the hearty approval of our friends and the public.

LABOR PLANS TIE UP
IN FRANCE AND ITALY

PARIS, July 4.—The executive committee of the General Labor federation announces that, after conferring with British and Italian "comrades," plans are being laid for an international labor manifestation on July 21, when there will be a complete stoppage of all work in France and Italy.

The objects of the demonstration, it is said, are "the cessation of armed intervention in Russia, the rapid demobilization of similes, the restoration of constitutional rights, full and absolute amnesty and, above all, a war on the increased cost of living by all pessible means."
